Librarians' reports: Lisa Carr- Tom Henry will be hosting programs in the History Discover Center on World War I. The center has had 82 visitors from 10 different states since its opening. The library staff is also developing a teen program.

Old business:

Report local Friends meeting - Shari and Marcia attended the meeting in Marcellus. They discussed fundraisers such as book sales and having a book corner in the library. A general suggestion was that a Friends Board member sit on at least two committees.

"Between the Covers" fundraiser is set for October 19 at the Auburn Public Theater beginning at 6:00 p.m.

New Business:

National Giving Tuesday the Friends organization will be registered with the group.

Friends of Library Week Legislative Resolution
